

Romans 5:12-14 (MSG)

Genesis 3:21 (ESV)

Leviticus 16:3-4 (ESV)

"It was an occasion of great amazement to us when we saw Eleazar engaged in his ministry and all the glorious vestments, including the wearing of the garment with precious stones upon it in which he is vested. There the priest's appearance makes one awestruck and dumbfounded. A man would think he had come out of this world into another. I emphatically assert that every man who comes near the spectacle of what I have described will experience astonishment and amazement beyond words, his very being transformed by the hollowed arrangement on every single detail."

-Letter of Aris 96-97 (SCREEN)

"If one reflects on the construction of the tabernacle and looks at the vestments of the priests and the vessels which we use for the sacred ministry, he will discover that every one of these objects is intended to recall and represent the universe."

-Josephus

"If we taught people who they are in Christ, we probably wouldn't have to spend as much time telling them what to do."

-Stuart Briscoe

"The Gospels of Sin Management" presume a Christ with no serious work other than redeeming humankind... [and] it fosters "vampire Christians," who only want a little blood for their sins but nothing more to do with Jesus until Heaven.

-Dallas Willard "The Divine Conspiracy"
